

Financial Fraud, Cyber Scams and India

Financial fraud, in essence, is a situation in which the legal and ethical management of financial resources does not take place. Financial fraud affects common people, commercial organization and has a negative impact on the entire economy and social system through the loss of money and wealth.